The image is a vertical composition with a dramatic, war-themed background. At the top, a formation of approximately ten fighter jets flies across a sky filled with soft, golden light from a setting or rising sun. Below the sky, a large, intense explosion of orange and yellow flames erupts from a valley. In the foreground, the silhouettes of five soldiers are visible, standing on a dark ridge and looking towards the viewer. They are holding rifles, and their forms are dark against the bright, fiery background. The overall mood is one of conflict and the consequences of war.
